

- Board of Zoning Appeals

The BZA interprets the zoning map and boundaries; hear and decide requests for “special exceptions”, or uses on appeal.

The BZA hears and decides requests for variances, under conditions specified in the law.

The BZA appeals decisions of the building commissioner, zoning compliance officer or similar official in regard to enforcement of zoning provisions.